

|                               |                                                                         |                                              |            |
|-------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------|------------|
|                               |                                                                         | code                                  | 140 |
| Name of the Wine       | Nero d’Avola                                                            |                                              |            |
| Winery                 | Ottosoli                                                                |                                              |            |
| Type                   | Dry Red Wine                                                            | Alcohol %                             | 13,5%      |
| Area of Production     | Sicily                                                                  |                                              |            |
| Grape Varieties        | Nero d’Avola (100%)                                                     |                                              |            |
| Wine Making            | Temperature Controlled Vinification, long maceration on skins (18 days) |                                              |            |
| Tasting Charateristics | color                                                            | Ruby Red, intense, bright, violet reflex.    |            |
|                               | smell                                                            | Rich, generous, fruit jam aroma.             |            |
|                               | taste                                                            | Smooth as strong, harmonic; long persistence |            |
| Serving Temperature    | 17-19°C                                                                 |                                              |            |

|       |                  |                        |       |
|-------|------------------|------------------------|-------|
| 品名    | 黑阿沃拉             |                        |       |
| 葡萄酒厂  | 八阳               |                        |       |
| 种类    | 干红               | 酒精度%                   | 13,5% |
| 产区    | 西西里              |                        |       |
| 葡萄品种  | 黑阿沃拉(100%)       |                        |       |
| 葡萄酒酿造 | 温控酿造, 葡萄皮浸泡 18 天 |                        |       |
| 品尝特点  | 酒色               | 深邃的红宝石色, 色彩明亮,带有紫罗兰的颜色 |       |
|       | 酒香               | 香气浓郁, 持久, 带有水果的味道      |       |
|       | 酒味               | 口感丰富柔顺, 回味绵长,          |       |
| 保存温度  | 17-19°C          |                        |       |